ZAKIR HUSAIN.

President.

V. N. BHATIA,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Reasons for the enactment

In the State of Uttar Pradesh the procedural provisions relating to recovery of land revenue and other dues recoverable as land revenue are contained in Chapter VIII of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901. In respect of areas in which the Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950, was enforced, the matter is covered by the provisions contained in sections 278 to 294 of the Act. In the district of Rampur (erstwhile princely State of Rampur) the corresponding law in force was the Qanoon Malguzari Arazi Riyasat Rampur, 1932, which by and large, followed the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901. The Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950, was extended to the rural areas of Rampur but the urban areas thereof continued to be governed by the said Rampur Qanoon.

2. By the Uttar Pradesh Land Laws Amendment Act, 1965, certain amendments were made in the aforesaid procedural provisions both of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901, and the U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950, with a view to providing, inter alia, for the power to appoint a receiver of any property of the defaulter; but by oversight corresponding amendments were not made applicable to the areas where the Qanoon Malguzari Arazi Riyasat Rampur, 1932, is in force.

3. In order to obviate any difficulty in the recovery of arrears of land revenue and of other public dues in the urban areas of Rampur it is necessary to extend to those areas the provisions of Chapter VIII of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901, amended as aforesaid. It is also expedient to give retrospective effect to the present measure and to validate the action already taken by the Collector of Rampur and other authorities in that behalf.

4. As it is not practicable to refer the present legislation to the Consultative Committee of Parliament on Uttar Pradesh Legislation, it has been decided, in view of the urgency of the matter, to enact the present legislation as a President's Act without such reference.
